Dedication

Hear ye, hear ye! We, the loyal subjects and forebearers of 2002, of the township of East Windsor, do hereby dub these chronicles virtuous, truthful and honest, and will henceforth, be dedicated to the three sorceresses of guidance. They are workers of magic whose spells transformed us from apprentices to masters of our future.

Central sorceress, Mrs. Barbara Ames, conjured up scrolls of transcripts and parchments of notification. Her demeanor was sanguine, even in times of peril and famine. The all-knowing and wise sorceress, Mrs. Lora Arnold, led her knights courageously into the heart of battle. The loyal subjects emerged victorious wearing the banners of pride and ambition. To the sorceress, Miss Sharon Orefice, the town crier; we thank her for her tales of wonderment and woe. A special thanks to our guidance jester, Mrs. Bonnie LeBlanc, the pretzel monger.

During the journey from apprectice to master, the forebearers of 2002 endured a devastating debacle to their almighty kingdom. September 11th rang out sunny and cool, when out of the sky, came Dragon Laden roaring vengeance on our sister castles. We, the humble scholars, pay homage to our fallen heroes.

And thus, we the undersigned, bestow deference and reverence to our parental kinsmen and the red, white and blue ensign. Signed Anni Domino, November 14, 2001.

Class History

In a land far away, a place of mystical creatures and forces that defy the laws of science, a group of heroes began their journey. The Class of 2002 began there tutelage under the great sorcerer, Mr. Anderson, and sorceress, Mrs. Percival, in the great kingdom of East Windsor. The leaders of this class, who would one-day grow into leaders of the nation, were led by Karen Foley, Bryan Pitney, Stefanie Coughlin, Alana Signor and Matthew Saucier. To help pass the time, the heroes decided to help decorate the halls of their castle in the colors of Black and Gold, to promote unity and pride.

Soon, the heroes learned of great challenges that were beginning to arise within their kingdom. Joshua Harrington, Bryan Pitney, Caitlin Dowd, Alana Signor and Matthew Saucier led the group of heroes in the year's trials and tribulations. They had to pick symbols to commemorate their time spent learning in the halls of the castle, so they formed a committee to do so. The wise heroes visited the Jostens' and Balfour ring merchants and after much deliberation, the heroes decided to pick Jostens.

As the heroes traversed the halfway point in their studies, Bryan Pitney, Joshua Harrington, Joe Strogoff, Caitlin Dowd, Alana Signor and Matthew Saucier were there to lead the way with banners and flags. They proclaimed that in order to throw a successful ball, the heroes must raise money. Calling assemblies and meetings, they decided that a night of tales from storytellers was the way to go. "The Warrens" came and the group raised over one thousand dollars in one night. With the capital and plans set in motion, the ball could go on. Our visitor from a foreign land, Michael Kern, became king of the event and his chosen queen was Rachel Abbe.

In the last year of their instruction, the band of heroes looked toward the future with bright hopes. Matthew Saucier, Caitlin Dowd, Lindsay Raber, Alana Signor and Christopher Mazur were there to take the lead. Stories of a dragon stealing the heroes' treasure started to surface. In order to slay the dragon with a clever plot, the band of merry heroes looked to the skills of the white knight Cezus for guidance and help. They would hold another fundraiser in the form of a magazine drive. With a triumphant fund-raiser, the band of heroes looked forward to a pleasant final farewell ball at Elmcrest Country Club in Longmeadow. With their studies finalized, the heroes went off into the world to perform many heroic actions and deeds.

Student Council Advisor: Mr. Harrigan

Student Council provides for student participation in school government, establishes a better understanding between the administration, faculty and students and affords training in citizenship by exercising rights and meeting responsibilities.

The Student Council officers work closely with their advisor and the student representatives to identify, communicate and update the student body on any pending issues or concerns.

Senior Executive Board Advisors: Mr. Anderson & Mrs. Percival

The Senior Executive Board exhibits leadership for all their loyal subjects and forebearers of the other class executive boards, through their dedication, desire and determination. The Lords and Ladies of the Class of 2002 worked diligently under the direction of their leaders, on the magazine drive, along with other fundraisers to defer the cost of graduation from their almighty Kingdom. They also have been preparing for their Grand Fest to be held on June 7, 2002 at the Elmcrest Country Club in East Longmeadow, Mass.

Senior Class Officers 2001

At the beginning of their final legacy, King Saucier, Vice-Queen Dowd, Tax Collector Signor, Town Minstrel Raber & Duke Mazur led the Lords & Ladies to fight for money by selling magazines for their fine Kingdom. At the nearing of the end of their journey, they had a grand & glorious day of celebration, which included jousting and horseback riding, rock climbing, swimming and all the food they could eat. The last feat that these 5 great leaders had to fulfill was graduation from their fine Kingdom.

Junior Executive Board Advisors: Mrs. Bowman & Mr. Cezus

The Junior Executive Board is busy with planning their Junior Prom. It will be held at the Sheraton at Bradley on May 17, 2002 from 6-12 midnight. The menu includes a choice of prime rib or baked stuffed breast of chicken. The DJ, Nick and the Kepitan, will provide music to go along with the theme "Mardi Gras." The board is also responsible for organizing Class Day for the seniors and assembling the "motto" banner used at graduation. Juniors also publish a bimonthly newsletter that informs the Class of '03 of what is going on of importance in their class.

Junior Class Officers 2003

The Junior Class Officers organize fundraisers year round, such as bake sales and guest lecturers. Their major responsibility is the planning and organization of the Junior Prom. They are also the voice of the junior class to the Student Council and the administration.

Sophomore Executive Board Advisors: Mrs. McGillivray & Mrs. Palenscar

The Sophomore Executive Board and the class officers have an extremely important job. They have the responsibility of deciding what activities and fundraisers should take place during the year. These activities and fundraisers offset the cost of trips and activities offered to the sophomore class, as well as deferring the costs of graduation in 2004. They work very hard to make the activities offered interesting, hoping to involve as many sophomores as possible.

Sophomore Class Officers 2004

The Sophomore Class Officers, along with the executive board, investigate class ring companies, organize year-round fundraisers and begin to plan their Junior Prom. They set up a prom committee, decide on the prom date and locate a place for the prom to take place.

Freshmen Executive Board Advisors: Ms. Orefice & Mrs. Wilson

The Freshmen Executive Board works closely with their advisors to plan various fundraisers to be held throughout the year. The members of the board would be responsibile for the distribution of fundraising items and the collection of the money.

Mrs. Wilson, Kristy Signor, Brittany Munroe, Ashley Welton, Ms. Orefice.

Freshmen Class Officers 2004

The Freshmen Class Officers assist the executive board on important decisions associated with the operation of the yearly events. They consider various fundraisers to take place throughout the school year. These activities will help to offset the cost of any trips or other events which may take place in the year 2001-2002.

Peer Mediation Advisors: Mrs. Arnold, Ms. Orefice & Mrs. McGillivray

A peer mediator is a student who has been trained to conduct mediation sessions. The mediator does not take sides, decides who is right or wrong or makes decisions for the disputants.

Mediators help people talk to each other and work together to find a solution fair to both sides of the dispute at hand.

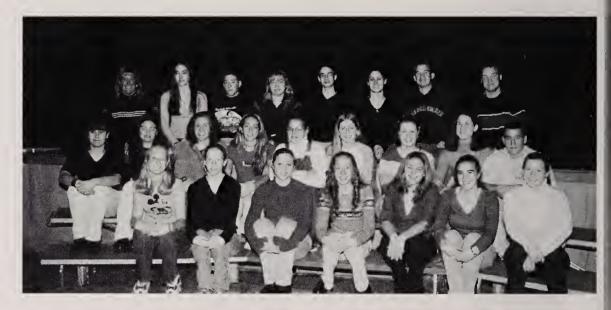

They are there to help people resolve differences because they might better understand the disputants' points of view.

National Honor Society Advisor: Ms. Drake

Life seems so like that bit of string; Each deed we do a simple thing; Yet, day by day, this is one life's strand; We work with patient heart and hand; It gathers joy, makes the dark days bright; And gives us at least a lovely light.

Chris Mazur

Literary Magazine Advisor: Mrs. Kotula

The literary magazine, Expressions, made its exciting debut this year, offering a place for students, faculty and staff to contribute their own literary and visual pieces. Since students often spend a lengthy amount of time creating and polishing their works in various classes, Expressions is a great opportunity for them to see their works published for all to enjoy!

Panther TV Advisor: Mr. Anderson

High school students with an interest in broadcast journalism can become involved with Panther TV. Members of each class produce and present a live telecast of daily announcements for both the student body and staff. These shows are viewed over the school's Channel One television network each morning during homeroom. The crew of PTV are not only responsible for reading the news of the day, but they are also given the chance to learn about the technical production work that goes on behind the scene.

Chorus Advisor: Ms. Smiley

Chorus is a performance-oriented class designed to develop and perfect choral performance techniques learned at the junior high or middle school level.

Students learn to read music and develop their interpretation of vocal music.

Performance techniques covered include: stage presence and decorum, movement, and use of sound equipment and lighting from a performance perspective. Our annual events include winter and spring concerts, a fall dinner theater and caroling around school for the holiday season.

NCCC Chorus Advisor: Ms. Smiley

NCCC Chorus consists of a selected group of talented singers from the East Windsor High School Chorus. They perform yearly at the NCCC Concert, which is held at a different member school each year.

Broad Brook Fire Department

The Broad Brook Fire Department is an organization that is dedicated to serving the town of East Windsor and the neighboring towns in the preservation of life and property. It is made up of brave and noble men and women who give of themselves to join together in the common cause of firefighting. Countless hours of training are put into preparing these people to complete numerous tasks, most of which need to be performed all at once. On the street, they appear as ordinary people, but when the whistle blows and the people cry for help, they become heroes. 71

Sadd Executive Board

The SADD Executive Board works closely with their advisors, Ms. Rioux and Mrs. Ames, investigating and contacting possible speakers for school-wide assemblies to reinforce the enormous impact of underage drinking, driving under the influence, drug use and other destructive decisions on their lives, as well as the lives of others.

SADD is an organization that addresses the issues of underage drinking, drinking and driving, drug use and other destructive decisions and killers of young people, including violence, suicide, alcohol poisoning and AIDS. All members, with their parents, must sign a "Contract for Life" pledging never to drive under the influence of drugs or alcohol or ride with someone who is impaired. SADD has monthly meetings with guest speakers and films to encourage a drug and alcohol-free lifestyle.

Farewells

A farewell tribute to the knight and the damsels who sat around the roundtable and made Archive '02 a reality...

Aalisha, Alexis, Caitlin, Darliska, Erin, Heather, Jessica, Jolene, Rachael, Randa, Sheri, Tom--the lord and ladies who pulled up the reins on their steeds, who drew out their swords and made Archive come alive by breathing life into what they believed would only be another daydream.

Caitlin and Jessica, we thank you for taking command and slaying this formidable dragon.

Darliska and Randa, we acknowledge your creative process: what a magnificent coat of arms (cover) and bountiful layout.

We fill the castle air with our trumpets resounding thanks and praise to Aalisha, Rachael, Heather, Jolene, Erin, Sheri and Tom for taking up scissors, glue, photos, commands and contributing their creativity and ultimately slaying the dragon known as ARCHIVE.

We will miss you all, but like the legends of yore, we will never forget you; you are heroines emblazoned forever in our hearts.

Love, The Taskmasters Malin & Cezus

Class of 2002 Best wishes to all you do!!

Mrs. Kotula

Seniors, we will miss you!

Thanks for making the BABBLING BROOK come alive.

We laughed, we cried, we "gossiped" through two performances.

Thanks for the memories!!

With Love, Miss "K." & Miss "V."

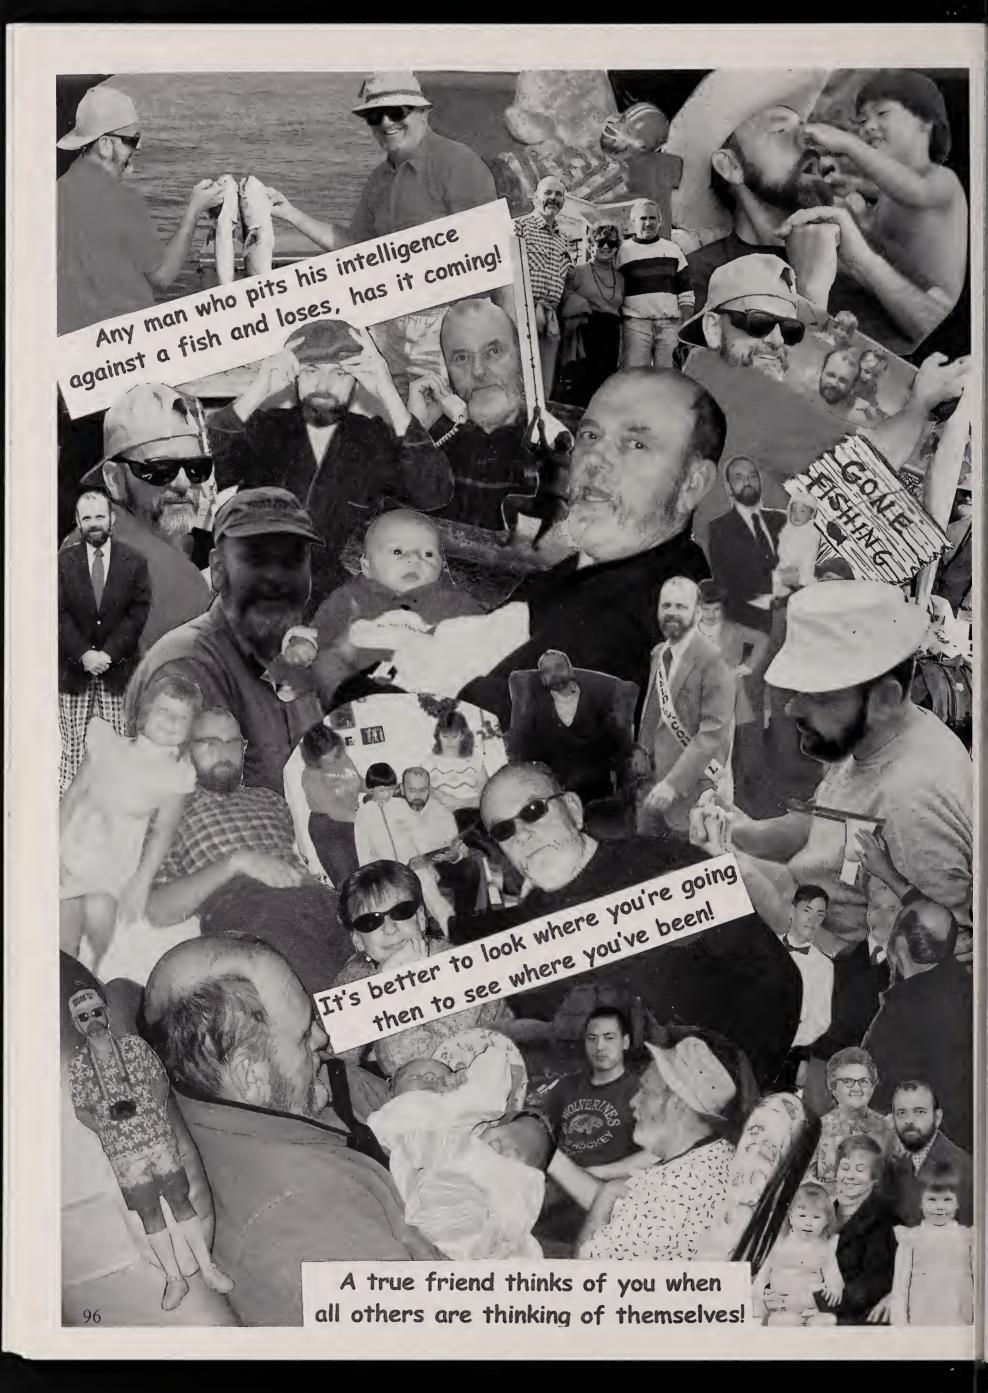

To all the seniors marching to a new tune:

Remember to practice always and make sure music is forever an integral part of your lives!!

Bryan Pitney

As the soot and dirt and ash rained down, We became one color.

As we carried each other down the stairs of the burning building,

Vice President:

We became one class.

As we lit candles of waiting and hope,

Joshua Harrington

We became one gender.

As fire fighters and police officers fought their way into the inferno, Recording Secretary: We became one in faith.

As we whispered or shouted words of encouragement,

Chelsey Moore

We spoke one language.

Corresponding Secretary:

As we gave our blood in lines a mile long,

We became one body. As we mourned together the great loss,

Caitlin Dowd

We became one family.

Treasurer:

As we cried tears of grief and loss,

We became one soul. As we retell with pride the sacrifice of heroes,

Kacie Wittke

We became one people.

Congratulations to the Class of 2002 from Student Council!

The Leo Club is an official activity of the Lions Clubs International that encourages young men and women to serve others in the community and around the world.

The East Windsor Leo Club began in September 2001 and has been active in community fundraisers, assisting children in Afganistan and supporting the Red Cross Blood Drives. The Leo's are preparing a local band concert with upcoming local rock groups that will raise money for the training and purchase of a community "service dog" that will assist handicapped persons in town.

Leo Clubs include regular meetings, projects and social functions. The Leo motto—Leadership, Experience, Opportunity—is fulfilled as members work together in response to the needs of others. There are presently 53 active Leo Club members in the East Windsor branch.

To accomplish great things, we must dream as well as act.

< As with everything else, it was a strange year for music. How else can you describe the success of the soundtrack "O Brother, Where Art Thou?" and Michael Jackson's less than "Invincible" return as the King of Pop? But that didn't stop 'NSync, Britney Spears, Usher and the like from commanding the airwaves. Country music got a kick from Tim McGraw who was named CMA Entertainer of the Year, while ears couldn't get enough of newcomer Alicia Keys' "Songs In A Mirror." >

Technology continues to evolve at dizzying speeds. More compact and personal, mp3 players are killing the portable CD star. Now, CDs and mp3 files ripped off the net can be transported from the PC to your ears anywhere you go. Not to mention, portable DVD players let you catch your favorite movies on the run. Dean Kampen also unveiled the Segway Human Transporter that totally reinvents the wheel. Apple is changing the way people view technology with a new iMac designed around a 15-inch LCD flat screen. Amazing.

> VIDEO GAME SYSTEMS > Microsoft's XBox went head-2-head against Nintendo's GameCube and Sony's PS2 for control of the multibillion dollar game console market.
Each delivers speed combined with graphically rich gaming environments that further blur the line between virtual and actual reality.

< What were the haute fashion trends? For starters, low-rise jeans were in. And credit Madonna for causing people to switch from the baseball cap to the tattered, straw cowboy hat. The look changed after Sept. 11. People showed their true colors with the return of Old Glory and by wearing "I Love NY" t-shirts. The hair: rough, tumbled and tousled emerged to contrast elegant styles for a balanced look. For zooming around, let's not forget the shoes. >
